September 10th, 2009 WORKSHOPS

10:15a.m.-11:30a.m.

1: HOW DO WE RESPOND TO CHILDREN EXPOSED TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE?: Promising Practices

Jim Grace - Department for Community Based Services

The practice of responding to co-occurring domestic violence and child abuse is still growing with new and innovative strategies being tested in public and private settings throughout the country. This presentation will provide an overview of programs around the country that have been defined as promising practices in this challenging field.

2: MEDICAL EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF CHILD MALTREATMENT IN CHILDREN UNDER THREE YEARS OF AGE

Melissa L. Currie, M.D. - Assistant Professor of Pediatrics; Director, Division of Forensic Medicine; University of Louisville

Come participate in a highly visual* presentation with photographs of common inflicted physical injuries. The presenter will discuss common mechanisms of injury and will also review some common mimics of child physical abuse. *Note: Some photographs contain graphic images that may be disturbing to some audience members.

3: ABUSE, NEGLECT AND DEPENDENCY LAW IN KENTUCKY

Duane F. Osborne - Assistant Fayette County Attorney

This presentation will be a crash course overview of Abuse, Neglect and Dependency law in Kentucky. This presentation will be geared toward people who are interested in learning what constitutes "abuse" or "neglect" under Kentucky law, as well as under what circumstances children can be removed and placed outside of their homes, either in foster care or kinship care.

4: DOCUMENTATION OF CHILD ABUSE IN THE MEDICAL RECORD

Diane Glenn, R.N., S.A.N.E. - Nurse Services

Administrator; Department for Community Based Services

This presentation will provide details on documenting the findings in child abuse and neglect cases, ensuring providers have thoroughly recorded evidence. Tips on requesting medical records will also be discussed.

5: FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDERS: An Invisible Disability

Laura Nagle - Bluegrass Prevention Center

Did you know that a child or an adult can look like everyone else, have a typical IQ, and still have significant brain differences caused by prenatal alcohol exposure? This workshop will focus on the basics of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders: what is it, how does it affect a person's ability to navigate daily life, and what can I do differently to support a person with this kind of brain difference?

6: JOINT INVESTIGATIONS

Please note for participation in this workshop law enforcement professionals receive first priority.

Heather Simpson - Service Region Clinical Associate; Department for Community Based Services; Cabinet for Health and Family Services

Trooper First Class Mack Rayburn - Kentucky State Police

This block of instruction will be directed toward the beginner to intermediate level investigators for social services and law enforcement. The course will provide them with direction on what their roles and responsibilities will be when conducting a joint investigation into child abuse. The course will also cover the benefits of conducting a joint investigation.

2:00p.m.-3:30p.m.

7: WILL DCBS STAFF BE KNOCKING ON MY DOOR? : The Centralized Intake Process

Jim Grace - Department for Community Based Services

Both professionals and parents struggle to understand the screening process used by DCBS to determine the "track" of a referral concerning the safety or well-being of a child. This presentation will explain the who, how and why of this process in order to enhance consistency in reporting and to ensure that all children who are at risk, and who meet DCBS screening criteria, are protected in a timely manner.

8: SELF CARE FOR CARING PEOPLE: Part 1

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 30 registrants. (Participants must register for Part 1 and Part 2 of this workshop.)

Carol Whipple, M.S. - Executive Director of Family Counseling Service, Inc.

This workshop is for those who care deeply about others, but quite frequently do not offer themselves that same level of attention and care. To provide quality care to others, we must also prioritize time and energy for ourselves. By utilizing the 360 Whole Life Inventory, participants: 1.) look deeply within themselves to clarify values, 2.) determine areas of life where they are thriving as well as striving, and; 3.) identify realistic goals on which to focus. A guided imagery meditation and gratitude blessing will be offered as we practice relaxation and self care. The participant will leave this workshop feeling refreshed, renewed and motivated to take better care of the self.

9. JUDICIAL ISSUES SURROUNDING THE ABUSED

Honorable Judge Steve Alan Wilson - Warren County Circuit Court

Thomas Lockridge - Commonwealth Attorney for the 13th District Judicial Circuit

The presentation will include a look at Circuit Court issues surrounding children who are abused. Further, it will explain how the process reads and finally the road to the end.

10: FORENSIC PHOTOGRAPHY: Capture the Abuse

Trooper First Class Mack Rayburn - Kentucky State Police

This block of instruction will be directed toward the beginner to intermediate level investigators tasked with documenting abuse through photography. The block of instruction will introduce the students to the basics of crime scene photography. It will also cover specific techniques used to photograph injuries and signs of abuse. The block of instruction will cover the equipment needed to document crime scenes and injuries.

11. PATHOLOGY OF CHILD ABUSE

Jennifer Schott, M.D. - Forensic Pathologist Office of the Associate Chief Medical Examiner; Department of Justice and Public Safety, Commonwealth of Kentucky

This presentation will attempt to illustrate the pathology of child abuse, including a discussion comparing and contrasting patterns of injury in accidental and non-accidental trauma. A few specific injuries, such as bruises, fractures, burns, and bite marks will also be presented.

12: POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER AND LONG-TERM SEQUELAE ISSUES

Please note law enforcement professionals receive first priority for participation in this workshop.

Terry C. Cox, Ph.D. - Department of Criminal Justice and Police Studies, Eastern Kentucky University

Teri Ann Cox, Ph.D. - Staff Psychologist, Veterans Administration Hospital; Cincinnati, Ohio

Angela Curran, M.S. - Educational Diagnostician; Juvenile Justice System; West Virginia

This presentation will focus on childhood Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and long term behavioral sequelae. The obvious focus will be on traumas associated with an array of events to include child sexual, physical, and emotional abuse. This will include a focus on risks, such as Substance Abuse Disorder, and those involving personality, social-cognitive, academic and emotional, behavioral risks such as aggression.

13: WHAT EVERY VICTIM'S ADVOCATE NEEDS TO KNOW ABOUT BATTERER INTERVENTION

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 50 registrants.

David Gutierrez, LCSW - Assistant Director, Cabinet for Health and Family Services Division for Violence Prevention Resources

Jeanne Patricia Keen, M.S., BCRN, CADC - Program Administrator, Cabinet for Health and Family Services Division of Violence Prevention Resources

Batterers choose violence because it works. They will end their use of violence when this community no longer endorses, accepts, tolerates, condones, and encourages violence against women. This workshop will address Batterer Intervention Programs, the model upon which they are based, and current research regarding outcomes. The presenters will discuss why they believe batterer intervention works only in the presence of a coordinated community response that includes the judicial system, child protective services, victim advocates and the community at large.

14: WHAT'S RACE GOT TO DO WITH IT? AN HONEST CONVERSATION ABOUT THE IMPACT OF RACISM ON THE CHILD WELFARE SYSTEM

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 40 registrants.

Carol Taylor, MSW - Program Director Comprehensive Family Services; University of Kentucky College of Social Work Training Resource Center

There is a big pink elephant in the living room of the child welfare system: racism. We see it everyday and we walk around it on a daily basis. The question is: what can we do about it? This workshop will provide a safe environment for people to have an honest conversation about race, learn how it affects the entire child welfare system and ways that organizations can effectively address it.

15: SELF CARE FOR CARING PEOPLE: Part 2

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 30 registrants. (Participants must register for Part 1 and Part 2 of this workshop series.)

Carol Whipple, M.S. - Executive Director of Family Counseling Service, Inc.

This workshop is for those who care deeply about others, but quite frequently do not offer themselves that same level of attention and care. To provide quality care to others, we must also prioritize time and energy for ourselves. By utilizing the 360 Whole Life Inventory, participants: 1.) look deeply within themselves to clarify values, 2.) determine areas of life where they are thriving as well as striving, and; 3.) identify realistic goals on which to focus. A guided imagery meditation and gratitude blessing will be offered as we practice relaxation and self care. The participant will leave this workshop feeling refreshed, renewed and motivated to take better care of the self.

16: POSTPARTUM DEPRESSION

C. Renee Knight, MSW - Department for Public Health State/National Trainer - H.A.N.D.S. Home Visitation Program

Postpartum depression is a form of Perinatal Depression. About one in eight women suffer from postpartum depression. Come learn signs and symptoms of postpartum depression, how it effects child development and identify support systems and treatment for recovery.

17: CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE: Myth Vs. Reality

Jacqueline Sugarman, M.D. - Associate Professor of Pediatrics; UK College of Medicine and Physician, Child Advocacy Center of the Bluegrass

Sponsored by:

This workshop will address common misconceptions regarding the medical examination of the sexually abused child. Recent studies and research will be discussed that refute some of the myths surrounding medical findings and the medical examination in child sexual abuse and those that support the (sometimes surprising) realities.

18: A CORONER'S ROLE IN CHILD DEATHS

Brian L. Ritchie - Anderson County Coroner; Executive Secretary of Kentucky State Coroner's Association

Presentation will give an understanding of the role of the coroner in multiple types of child death investigations and an understanding of how a local Child Fatality Review Team functions.

19: EFFECTS OF POVERTY ON CHILDREN

Please note law enforcement professionals receive first priority for participation in this workshop.

Terry C. Cox, Ph.D - Department of Criminal Justice and Police Studies, Eastern Kentucky University

Angela Curran, M.S. - Educational Diagnostician; Juvenile Justice System; West Virginia

This presentation will focus on the ontogeny and sequelae of the effects of children affected by poverty as defined by poverty indices. We will present descriptive information associated with childhood poverty. We will focus on sequelae to include physical health, cognitive and academic developmental issues, social-cognitive issues, and behavioral developmental outcomes. There will be a focus on how poverty environments affect the development of a child's self structure and consequences of negative developments in this area.

20: SURVIVING THE COURTROOM EXPERIENCE

Gary Adkins - Assistant Commonwealth Attorney, 19th Circuit Commonwealth Attorney's Office

Latonya Hesterberg, Ph.D. - Associate Professor of Social Work; Dept. of Sociology, Social Work, and Criminology, Morehead State University

Matt Sparks - Chief of Police, Morehead State University
From first receiving a subpoena to the examination on the witness stand, testifying in court can be an anxiety provoking experience for the helping professional. This workshop will provide the participant with effective testimony tips as well as a discussion of pitfalls that can be avoided.

21: TRAUMA INFORMED CARE AND THE COLLABORATIVE PROBLEM SOLVING APPROACH: Part 1

Participants must register for Part 1 and Part 2 of this workshop.

Geoff Wilson, LCSW, CADC - Director of Clinical Services, The Ridge Behavioral Health System

This presentation will provide attendees with an overview on the impact of trauma and what trauma informed care is. An evidence-based approach to working with "hard to manage" youth, The Collaborative Problem Solving Approach will be reviewed, with an emphasis on how this approach reflects trauma informed care.

22: THE CARE MODEL OF PARENT CHILD INTERACTION THERAPY: Part 1

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 30 registrants. (Participants must register for Part 1 and Part 2 of this workshop.)

Otto Kaak, M.D. - Professor of Psychiatry, Pediatrics and Social Work, University of Kentucky; Primary Investigator Center for the Study of Violence Against Children

Kay Hubbard, LCSW - University of Kentucky Center for the Study of Violence Against Children; Bluegrass Family Consultants LLC

The Care Model is a modification of Parent Child Interaction Therapy that can be used in a non-therapeutic environment such as a classroom, home, or other office. It is evidence-based, and is used to promote the relationship between the professional and children between the ages of 2-12.

23: TOP 10 RED FLAGS FOR CHILD ABUSE

Vesna Martich Kriss, M.D. - Educational Director, Department of Radiology, Kosair Children's Hospital; Professor Departments of Radiology and Pediatrics, University of Louisville

This workshop will present and discuss 10 basic "red flags," clinical and radiographic findings that are highly suspicious for child abuse. Participants will learn to recognize specific clinical scenarios that are highly suggestive of child abuse; will learn to recognize specific radiographic findings that are highly suspicious for child abuse; and learn the recognition of "red flags" which will improve the detection and work-up of children with suspected abuse.

24: MODEL COURT PROGRAM FOR FAMILY AND FAMILY DRUG COURT

Honorable Judge Lucinda Masterton - Fayette Family Court

This session will describe the new Model Court program, currently in place to bring the Family Drug Court and the Dependency, Neglect and Abuse Courts up to national standards for best practices. The session will highlight some of the initiatives already developed as well as those in the planning stages for these courts.

25: INTERNET CRIMES AGAINST CHILDREN

Sponsored by:

Please note law enforcement professionals receive first priority for participation in this workshop.

Sergeant Jesse Harris - Lexington Police Department

Internet crimes against children training is designed to offer an overview of the possible risks to children associated with computer and internet use. During this training, the participants will receive information on common social networking sites and how predators use them to seduce children, the M.O. of an online predator, and Kentucky Statutes used in the enforcement of internet crimes.

10:15a.m.-11:45a.m.

26: UNDERSTANDING AND WORKING WITH DIFFERENT AGES AND GENERATIONS

Sponsored by:

Emily Ballance, MEd, LPC

Come to this fun and enlightening seminar and find out how to work more effectively with people of different ages and generations. The Millennials (born 1980-2000), Gen-Xers (born 1960-1980), Baby Boomers (born 1943-1960) and Traditionalists (born 1922-1943) all have different characteristics. We'll listen to the music of each generation as we discuss their values, struggles, motivators and defining events. You'll leave with new ideas to help you improve communication, build stronger relationships and create a more positive work environment.

27: TRAUMA INFORMED CARE AND THE COLLABORATIVE PROBLEM SOLVING APPROACH: Part 2

Participants must register for Part 1 and Part 2 of this workshop.

Geoff Wilson, LCSW, CADC - Director of Clinical Services, The Ridge Behavioral Health System

This presentation will provide attendees with an overview on the impact of trauma and what trauma informed care is. An evidence-based approach to working with "hard to manage" youth, The Collaborative Problem Solving Approach will be reviewed, with an emphasis on how this approach reflects trauma informed care.

28: THE CARE MODEL OF PARENT CHILD INTERACTION THERAPY: Part 2

Please note this workshop is limited to the first 30 registrants. (Participants must register for Part 1 and 2 of this workshop.)

Otto Kaak, M.D. - Professor of Psychiatry, Pediatrics and Social Work, University of Kentucky; Primary Investigator Center for the Study of Violence Against Children

Kay Hubbard, LCSW - University of Kentucky Center for the Study of Violence Against Children; Bluegrass Family Consultants LLC

The Care Model is a modification of Parent Child Interaction Therapy that can be used in a non-therapeutic environment such as a classroom, home, or other office. It is evidence-based, and is used to promote the relationship between the professional and children between the ages of 2-12.

29: ABUSE AND NEGLECT IN CHILDREN FOUR YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER

Sheila Woods, M.D. - University of Kentucky

This presentation will briefly discuss current statistics of abuse and neglect in children ages four and older, aspects and target groups for prevention efforts, and necessary steps for intervention.

30: PROJECT MATCH (Making Appropriate and Timely Connections for Children)

Mike Grimes, MSSW - Department for Community Based Services

Jennifer Hall, MSW - University of Kentucky

Crystal Collins-Camago MSW, Ph.D - University of Louisville

The Department for Community Based Services (DCBS) has partnered with the University of Louisville, the University of Kentucky and Murray State University on a five year $2 million project funded by a Children's Bureau Discretionary Grant entitled Project MATCH (Making Appropriate and Timely Connections for Children). We have identified the long term goals of increasing the safety, permanency and well-being of children in Out Of Home Care (OOHC) in Kentucky. Short terms goals include increasing the pool of resource parents (both public and private); increasing the effectiveness in locating and using appropriate kinship care; fully integrating concurrent planning into permanency planning and increasing inter- and intra-agency communication between DCBS, private agencies and community stakeholders. The project is designed to take a comprehensive, multifaceted approach that is integrated into the overall service delivery system in Kentucky.

31: DEALING WITH DIFFICULT PEOPLE: Their Behavior—Your Response

Please note law enforcement professionals receive first priority for participation in this workshop.

Ted A. Marshall - Marshall Communications

All of us are presented with difficult people and challenging situations. This workshop will offer insight into those whom we find difficult and frustrating. We will explore why we react the way we do, sometimes in a counter-productive manner. Changing negative, hurtful emotions to feelings and behaviors that are positive and enhancing will be explored. Even though dealing with serious issues, this will be an upbeat and energizing workshop!

1:30p.m.-3:30p.m.

32: BUILDING BLOCKS: Facilitating Early Attachment and Emotional Growth of Babies and Children

Shawna Thomerson - Director of Community Services, Clark County Health Department

Workshop is designed to support professionals with facilitating early parenting skills for families. The session will focus on the importance of attachment and bonding for parents and babies and how the emotional support of young children provide the foundation for emotional well-being for the lifetime. Will discuss and identify resources for a toolbox for professionals for their work with families.

33: BREAKING THE CYCLE OF SEXUAL ABUSE FROM A CONTAINMENT MODEL APPROACH

Sponsored by:

Keth Zimmerman-Hicks, Ph.D., LPCC - Program Administrator, Department of Corrections Community Based Sex Offender Treatment Program (SOTP)

Eastern and South Central Region

This presentation will introduce the participants to information related to the prevalence of sexual abuse. What Kentucky is doing to provide intensive treatment, supervision and legislation to reduce the recidivism rate for sexual abuse in our state will be addressed. The containment model for sex offender management and the most recent work in Kentucky related to the implementation of Circles of Support & Accountability will also be explained.

34: ETHICAL ISSUES IN CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE CASES

Sponsored by:

Lyn Lee Bruckner, J.D. - Assistant Attorney General, Office of Victims Advocacy

Child sexual abuse investigations and subsequent prosecutions involve numerous professionals, including law enforcement, prosecutors, victims' advocates, social workers, psychologists and medical professionals. The success or failure of a case depends not only upon competent and thorough participation by all involved, but also upon adherence to all ethical guidelines by each of the participants. What are the ethical issues that may arise in child sexual abuse cases? This workshop will explore these issues, relying upon national and state guidelines in order to facilitate discussion on these topics as they relate to the prosecution of these cases.

35: CHILD NEGLECT: DEFINITIONS, SCOPE AND CONSEQUENCES

Allen Brenzel, M.D., F.A.A.P - Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Pediatrics; Director, Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Department of Psychiatry, College of Medicine; University of Kentucky, Center for the Study of Violence Against Children

By far the most common form of child maltreatment substantiated by our child welfare systems is neglect. It can, however, be difficult to define and problematic to identify. This presentation will focus on defining child neglect, its scope and the severe consequences of unrecognized child neglect. The need for prevention of child neglect will be highlighted.

36: TRANSFORMING CPS AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE SYSTEMS USING S.T.A.R.T. (Sobriety and Recovery Teams) AS A CATALYST

Ruth Huebner, Ph.D. - Cabinet for Health and Family Services

Tina Willauer - Director of the Kentucky Sobriety Treatment and Recovery Teams (K-START) program

Lynn R. Posze, MA, LPCC - Program Administrator for the Child Welfare Initiatives at the Kentucky Division of Mental Health and Substance Abuse

Substance abuse is a major contributor to child abuse and neglect in Kentucky and nationally, but CPS and substance abuse treatment are often inadequately coordinated to achieve good results. This workshop will review the evidence-informed rationale for START (Sobriety Treatment and Recovery Teams) and describe the change agents of START. The workshop is presented by leaders in CPS and substance abuse intervention who work in tandem to challenge existing myths, change policies, and forge processes that support a problem-focused – rather than discipline-focused – approach to intervention.

37: NARCOTICS IDENTIFICATION AND RECOGNITION

Please note law enforcement professionals receive first priority for participation in this workshop.

Captain Dwayne F. Depp - Kentucky State Police

This course will provide students with specific information that will assist them in identifying illegal narcotics in their community. We will also discuss signs and symptoms of an individual that is under the influence of narcotics.

This class is intended to generate discussion and information-sharing among the participants and the instructor.

Announces The

2009 Champions For Children Awards

Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky (PCAK) is sponsoring the 13th annual statewide Kids Are Worth It!® Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Conference. The Conference will be held at the Marriott Griffin Gate Resort in Lexington, Kentucky on September 10-11, 2009. An important component of this conference is the presentation of Champions for Children Awards recognizing outstanding individuals who impact the prevention of child abuse and neglect of Kentucky's children.

This year, nominees may include anyone who significantly impacts the prevention of child abuse and neglect and promotes positive outcomes for children and families in Kentucky. Additionally, one of the Champion for Children Awards will be designated in honor and memory of April Vandeventer. This award will be presented to a Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services staff member who most embodies Dr. Vandeventer's devotion to children and improving the systems serving their interests.

Potential nominees may include: Child Protective Services representatives (workers, supervisors, specialists or managers), Child Advocates (victim advocates, teachers, FRYSC staff, therapists, doctors, nurses, social workers and other professionals providing prevention or treatment services). Public Officials (Judges, prosecutors, Guardians ad litem) and volunteers.

To nominate an individual for this award, please complete the attached form and return it to Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky no later than July 15th, 2009.

Applications may be sent via email, fax or mail to: Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky, Attn: Trey Berlin
300 East Main Street, Suite #110, Lexington, KY 40507 • Fax (859) 225-8969 • Email: tberlin@pcaky.org
